

2018 Library Newsletter

from Gospel Publishers
September 2018

Following is a list of books suitable for school libraries. These titles have been added in the last year.

Angus and the Cat • Marjorie Flack; lower. Angus, the little Scottie dog, has learned many things. But he hasn't learned about cats. Then one day there is a cat lying on the sofa. How fascinating!

But when he chases her upstairs it seems she disappears. Where is that cat? 32 pages; paperback; Square Fish. #14300. $7.99

Angus and the Ducks • Marjorie Flack; lower. Angus is a little terrier who is curious about everything, but especially about what makes that big noise in the next yard. Then one day the door is left open, and he scurries off to see what is beyond the hedge! 32 pages; paperback; Square Fish. #14299. $7.99

Anita and the Driftwood House • Margaret A. Epp; middle/upper. Ten-year-old Anita is moving with her parents to the orchard country of Nova Scotia because her father is ill and unable to work. Her world is impacted by an orphan boy, boisterous cousins, and an old "wanderer" who shows up unannounced. And then comes a great surprise: Anita inherits a house made of driftwood on MacAllister Island! Read this book to enjoy her many adventures in this place of fishermen and bubbling streams. 128 pages, paperback, AB Publishing. #14432. $5.95

Arrow over the Door • Joseph Bruchac; middle/upper. Is it possible to be peaceful during a time of war? A young Quaker lad during the Revolutionary War is about to find out. A group of Indians shows up at a Quaker meeting. What will happen? Told from the alternating viewpoints of the young Quaker and a young

Abenaki Indian, this story is based on a true happening. 89 pages; paperback; Puffin Books. #11500. $5.99

Betteken's Refuge • Diane Yoder; upper. When persecution comes to the city of Antwerp in 1573, Betteken Wens is afraid the priest will find out that her father is an Anabaptist minister. Then Betteken's mother Maeyken is captured and imprisoned for her faith. Her absence leaves a void in the family that cannot be filled, and Betteken wonders if God hears their prayers. Walk with Betteken as she faces fear and uncertainty but finds refuge and peace in God at last. Based on an account in Martyrs Mirror. Historical fiction; 144 pages; paperback; TGS International. #13893. $8.99

Blossoms on the Roof • Rebecca Martin; middle. Eight-year-old Polly lives with her family on a rented farm in Indiana in 1894. Times are hard, and they can't afford the rent. But adventurous Father hears of free land available in far-away North Dakota. How will they build a house out on the prairie with no wood nearby? How will they turn the tough prairie grass into bountiful fields of wheat? Where will they get water? Read this story about real pioneering to find out! 160 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #13476. $8.99

Born to Die • Angela K. Zehr; upper. The setting of this story is Switzerland in the year 1527. Eighteen-year-old Annabelle wants life to continue in the traditional way, happy and undisturbed. But many people are turning away from the state church as a result of seeking the truth about God and the Bible. One by one Annabelle's own family members are baptized in the Anabaptist faith. All of Annabelle's beliefs and relationships are shaken, forcing her to consider things she would rather ignore. Will she give in? 119 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #18065. $8.99

Doe Sia • Kenneth Thomasma; middle/upper. Doe Sia is a Bannock girl known for her bravery in saving a little boy from drowning. Emma is one of the Handcart Pioneers who also has a reputation for courage. After they meet and become friends, they face a fierce mountain blizzard together. Will they survive? 203 pages; Grandview Publishing. #11478. $7.99

Dolores and the Big Fire • Andrew Clements; lower. Dolores is a cat. She lives in a house with Kyle. She is scared and timid, so Kyle leaves the lights on at night. But one night she does a brave thing. The house is on fire, so Dolores scratches Kyle's face to wake him up! Read this story to see how she saves his life, but almost dies herself. 32 pages; paperback; Simon and Schuster. #14194. $3.99

Dusty • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. When Dusty the wolfhound pup is only nine days old a freak accident separates him from his mother. He is adopted by a she-wolf named Old Gray. Old Gray tries to instill in Dusty the fear of men but only partially succeeds. Young Matt Henderson eventually catches Dusty and tames him. Dusty is loyal to Matt, except when he runs off in pursuit of a ferocious enemy. 252 pages; paperback; Lone Oak Books. #14192. $7.95 Proofreader's note: There is an instance of inappropriate language on p. 192.

Flame and Ashes • Janet McNaughton; middle/upper. Triffie is a rich tom-boy who is somewhat spoiled. In 1892, a huge fire burns a large part of her city, St. Johns, Newfoundland. Papa's shop and their beautiful house are all burned down. Together with the rest of the family, Triffie learns to make do with what they still have, and she becomes a more caring person in the process. 193 pages; hardcover; Scholastic. #14466. $17.50

Gopher Tales and Turtle Eggs • Alfred Isaac; middle/upper. Children growing up in a rural setting, in the era when cars and tractors replace horses, find it an exciting time. Drawn mainly from the author's memory, these adventures will appeal to children and adults. 96 pages; paper; Isaac. #13883. $13.25

Hoover Dam • Elizabeth Mann; middle/upper. This is the story of the taming of the wild Colorado River and the building of the mighty Hoover Dam. The years of planning, the dangerous working conditions, and the details of how the dam was built are all explained by interesting text and clear drawings and pictures. Forty-four pages plus a large fold-out; paperback; Mikaya Press. #14093. $9.95 Proofreader's note: There are two instances of inappropriate language in the small, italicized "Voices" sections on pages 17 and 28. There is one reference to "millions of years" on page 32.

I Survived: Five Epic Disasters • Lauren Tarshis; middle/upper. This book contains true stories of survival written for older children, young teens, and adults. Included are these accounts: The Children's Blizzard, 1888; The Titanic Disaster, 1912; The Great Boston Molasses Flood, 1919; The Japanese Tsunami, 2011; and The Henryville Tornado, 2012. 166 pages; hardcover; Scholastic Press. #14291. $12.99

I Survived: Nature Attacks! • Lauren Tarshis; middle/upper. This book contains true stories of survival from four different nature attacks. These stories are written for older children and young teens, and the focus is on young survivors. But many adults will also enjoy reading these stories. Included are these four accounts:

The Deadly Shark Attacks of 1916; The Great Peshtigo Fire of 1871; A Venomous Box Jellyfish Attack; and The Eruption of Mount Tambora. 166 pages; hardcover; Scholastic Press. #14292. $12.99

Kansas Prairie Doctor • Benuel M. Fisher; upper. Get a glimpse of the primitive and exhausting life of a country doctor in the early 1900s. Doctor Benner faced the challenges of typhoid fever, lockjaw, broken bones, appendicitis, and many other ailments with little more than the instruments carried in his satchel. Read of his practice on the Kansas prairie near the town of Peabody. 184 pages; paper; Fisher Publishing. #13704. $9.99

Little Pennsylvania Dutch Boy • Sharon (Durksen) Schnupp Kuepfer; lower/middle. Little Pennsylvania Dutch Boy Series book 1. This is the true story of seven-year-old Clair, a little boy growing up in Pennsylvania during World War II. Read about Daddy leaving them to serve in a conscientious objectors' camp. Listen as Mother explains a “blackout,” witness answers to prayers about things big and small, and feel the joy as the family is reunited. A recipe for traditional Dutch Mennonite food follows each chapter. 96 pages; paper; Mastof Press. #13947. $7.95 to prayers about things big and small, and feel the joy as the family is reunited. A recipe for traditional Dutch Mennonite food follows each chapter. 96 pages; paper; Mastof Press. #13947. $7.95

Matthew Grady Loves His Enemy • Samuel D. Coon; lower/middle. A beautiful book that illustrates nonresistance. A young Mennonite minister and his wife show love to the villagers, and they invite the people to the small church where he preaches. But a priest from another church hates the minister and has a plan to get him to leave. Read this book, based on true happenings, to see how God works and how love wins in the end. 36 pages; hardcover; Christian Light. #14230. $15.95

Om-kas-toe • Kenneth Thomasma; middle/upper. Three hundred years ago, the Blackfeet people knew nothing of horses, or “elkdogs” as they would later call them. They hunted buffalo on foot, which was difficult and dangerous. The people and their dogs carried heavy loads as they traveled from place to place. Read this book to learn about that time, and get a glimpse of the wonder as they see their first elkdogs! 215 pages; Grandview Publishing. #12465. $7.99

The Snow Walker • Margaret K. and Charles M. Wetterer; middle. For three days, the blizzard of 1888 raged over the northeastern United States. Twelve-year-old Milton Daub got the idea that he could make some snowshoes. His father helped. With snowdrifts up to the second story windows, it was the only safe way to get around. He started on an errand to get milk for his mother, but many neighbors called for him to get things for them. He gained fame as the “snow walker” who helped many people during this time of trouble. 48 pages; paperback; Millbrook Press. #13891. $6.95

Soun Tetoken • Kenneth Thomasma; middle/upper. This is a story of a young Nez Perce who found a coyote pup and inherited a wonderful stallion. It is about growing up and becoming a man. But it is also the sad story of the running war the Nez Perce fought defending themselves from the U.S. Army as they tried to escape war and fighting by moving to Canada. 262 pages; Grandview Publishing. #12934. $7.99

The Story of the Titanic • Beesley, Gracie, Lightoller, Bride; upper. This is the story of the Titanic tragedy, told by four survivors. Lawrence Beesley, Archibald Gracie, Commander Lightoller, and Harold Bride each tell in their own words what really happened, each from their own viewpoint. 320 pages; paperback;

Dover Publications. #12984. $9.95

Tabitha's Glory • Ruth Alberta Brown; middle/upper. Opening day at Ivy Hall is a great bustle of excitement and greeting old friends. But who is that lame, red-haired girl dressed in rags? Glory has a rough time at the school, and everyone else does too, until Tabitha allows herself to put into actions the compassion that is in her heart. Other girls follow suit, and another delightful, exciting year unfolds. But the biggest surprise of all awaits at the end of the school year! This reprint is a sequel to Tabitha at Ivy Hall. 192 pages; paperback; PrairieView Press. #14436. $9.95

Thomas Edison • Janet & Geoff Benge; middle/upper. This book tells the story of Thomas Edison's life, from when he was a young lad inadvisably playing with fire until he became a renowned inventor. This well-researched book tells the story without covering up his problems. His mind and hands were always busy, tackling the next challenge or idea. But his family life suffered, and there were times when the debt was piled high. A good book to learn the history of the late 1800s and early 1900s. 203 pages; paperback; Emerald Books. #14074. $9.99 Proofreader's note: There is one instance of inappropriate language on page 183.

Three Foolish Sisters (book 15) • W.G. Van de Hulst; lower. Stories Children Love series, book 15. Three little sisters are walking down the path, pulling a wagon. Their little brother is riding in the wagon. They see an open gate at the edge of the Baron's land. Do they dare go in? What do they find? What terrible predicament do they get into? How will they find little brother?

Suitable for beginning readers. 48 pages; paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14433. $6.95

Ti Neg • Shirlee Litwiller; lower. A pleasant book about the everyday life of a family in Haiti, written for young children. They will enjoy and learn from the simple text and delightful line drawings on every page. 43 pages; paper; Litwiller. #14059. $4.75

Tornado Boy • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. Out of the old West comes this story of a fine blue roan horse, naturally endowed with a gentle spirit and keen sense. A young ranch hand, Jim, rescues Tornado Boy from the quicksand, only to lose him when horse rustlers sweep through. The graceful horse faces a wild stallion, an ice storm, a grizzly bear, Crazy Barney, and a cattle stampede. A captivating book for young readers.

252 pages; paperback; Lone Oak Books. #14151. $7.95

What Do You Find in a Coral Reef?

• Megan Kopp; lower/middle. Brightly illustrated book describing the different living and non-living things that all contribute to a healthy, amazing coral reef ecosystem. 24 pages; paperback; Crabtree Publishing Co. #14072. $7.95

What Do You Find on a Saguaro Cactus?

• Megan Kopp; lower/middle. Nicely illustrated book for young children, describing the desert and the different living and non-living things that make up a saguaro cactus ecosystem. 24 pages; paperback; Crabtree Publishing Co. #14073. $7.95

Wilfred Grenfell • Linda Finlayson; middle/upper. As a schoolboy, Wilfred could hardly concentrate on his studies. There was so much to be explored in the outdoors! As he grew to manhood, his love of adventure and never-tiring nature was turned into a great asset. Up and down the coast of Labrador he sailed, stopping at little fishing villages to give medical care and preach the gospel. Hospitals were built, schools started, and the craft industry developed, all a result of Dr. Grenfell's tireless efforts. 135 pages; paperback; Christian Focus Publications. #14319. $8.99

Young Prince Hubert • Sidney Baldwin, revised by Joan Martin; middle. What shall be done about the spoiled, selfish prince? He will not grow up to be a good king. A wise courtier suggests a plan and the king agrees. Young Prince Hubert is sent to live among the peasants. Read this story to see his transformation into a compassionate, hard-working young man who understands hardship. Young lads on a similar journey will enjoy reading this book. 75 pages; paperback; Hoover Design. #14200. $5.95

Order from

Gospel Publishers

P.O. Box 230, Moundridge, Kansas 67107

Telephone 620-345-2532. Fax 620-345-2582

www.gospelpublishers.com/usa

Email orders@gospelpublishers.com

Library Newsletter September 2018