

Recent New Books

from Gospel Publishers ❖ February 2020

The Train of Life

Bill Giesbrecht. Related by Kayla Warkentin, written by Rosalie Penner. This book follows the life of Bill Giesbrecht, from the love story of his parents until his own retirement. Walk with him through the stages of life growing up in a family of seventeen children, working hard on his father's farm, serving with CPS, and acquiring his own farm. In his varied experiences, he shows how God led him through the hard times. 144 pages; paperback. $13.95. Item 14875

New Cookbook

Miller Kitchens Revisited

Compiled and published by Faith Yoder. Eleven years after the original "Miller Kitchens" was compiled, the family has more favorite recipes to share. These are not found in the original cookbook. 264 pages, hardcover with 3-ring binder. $22.00. Item 14880

