

Recent New Books

from Gospel Publishers ❖ April 2020

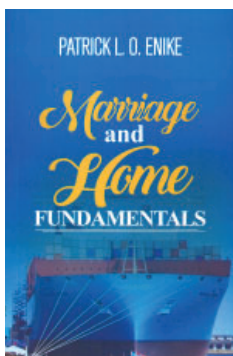

Rafael and Others

Compiled by Luke Weaver. This book consists of three short stories that are true accounts of folks who experienced a spiritual awakening and conversion in the Dominican Republic. They are just a few of the many lives that have been touched and have profited by the mission efforts over the years. Paperback; 82 pages. $9.50. Item 14918

Jerome's Adventures

By Rilla Miller. "Jerome climbed carefully down the last half inch of wall and onto the slippery sink counter. 'Ah,' he sighed in satisfaction, 'made it again.'" Jerome is a spider, and we are invited to join him in this imaginary tale as he explores from his home in the "human house." A fascinating children's story. Paperback; 45 pages. $7.95. Item 14909

Marriage and Home Fundamentals

By Patrick Enike. The author shares thoughts concerning a fundamental, Godly approach to marriage and the home. Chapters include "The Making of Christian Marriage (Holy Matrimony)," "The Responsibilities of a Husband," "The Responsibilities of a Wife," "Home Structure," and others. This book is written from the perspective of the Nigerian culture and will be of particular interest to former missionaries to Africa. 216 pages; paperback. $14.99. Item 14886

For your information . . .

Meals to the Fields Cookbook

We have sold our initial inventory of this title. This cookbook is now out of stock at Gospel Publishers. We encourage book agents to tell those interested they need to purchase it directly from the author. You are welcome to sell any stock on hand in your library.