

Recent New Books

from Gospel Publishers ☒ May 2020

New Songbook

Heaven in My Heart

Thirty-two songs compiled and published by Michael Peachey. Contains Michael's songs and a few songs by other composers. Paperback; published by Michael Peachey. $11.95.

Item 14938

New Books

The Knight's Journey

Written and illustrated by Anthony Eicher. The knight had the greatest horse, the finest castle, and plenty of gold. But he was not happy. "Maybe," he thought, "the old man in the forest can tell me how to find happiness." The wise man told the young knight a drink of the legendary waters of St. Metz would bring happiness. Published by Anthony Eicher. Pre-school to age 12. Hardcover; full-color illustrations; 58 pages. $19.95. Item 14711

What is the Bible?

By Lester Bauman. What is the Bible? offers helpful tools to familiarize yourself with the Bible. Knowing more about the time and culture in which the Bible was written makes it easier to understand. This little book provides an overview of each book of the Bible and gives tips on how to read and study it. Published by TGS International. Paperback; 112 pages. $3.99. Item 14839

Bootprints

By Deborah Beachy and Sharon Beachy. As a boy, Jason feared his father. As a man, he hated him. He thought this was normal. But why did it bother him when his own young sons began to fear him? As Jason learned to know the heavenly Father, there grew a hope that the evil cycle could be broken. Published by Shady Acres. 348 pages; paperback. $14.99.

Item 14623

New Cookbook

Grandma's Fried Chicken

A collection of recipes by the Otis and Manda Unruh Family of Central Kansas. This book includes a lot of old-fashioned recipes. One section features recipes from around the world. Another section is dedicated to recipes used at Emmy Lou's Bake Shoppe. Published by Judy Unruh. 340 pages; 3-ring binder. $26.75. Item 14939