

2019 Library Newsletter

from Gospel Publishers
October 2019

Following is a list of books suitable for school libraries. These titles have been added in the last year.

A Single Page • Brooke Brubaker; lower/middle. Andrew is excited when Grandfather asks him to accompany him to the Ephrata Cloister. He will finally get to see the printing press and the big martyr book he has heard so much about. Follow Andrew's adventurous trip and learn how the gift of a single page from the book changes the way he responds to those who mistreat him. 59 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14418. $10.99

The Biggest Bear • Lynd Ward; lower/middle. Little Johnny Orchard wants a bearskin to put up on the wall of the barn. But when he goes hunting, he finds a little bear cub instead of a big bear to shoot. The cub becomes a pet with a big appetite. Soon he is a nuisance to the whole valley! This classic children's story has been enjoyed by youngsters since the 1950s. 84 pages; paperback; Houghton Mifflin Harcourt. #14273. $8.99

Blaze and Thunderbolt • C.W. Anderson; lower. Billy and his pony Blaze head out to the ranch country of the West for a vacation. There they learn about Thunderbolt, a fast, elusive wild horse. The cowboys can't catch Thunderbolt. But with a kind and gentle approach, Blaze and Billy may succeed where others have failed. 48 pages; paperback; Aladdin. #14427. $7.99

Blaze Finds the Trail • C.W. Anderson; lower. Billy and his pony Blaze set out to explore an old woodland road that goes deep into the forest. But when a large fallen tree blocks their way, they head off of the trail and end up getting lost. Meanwhile, the sky is growing dark with a coming storm. Will Blaze be able to find the trail again and take them home? 48 pages; paperback; Aladdin. #14428. $7.99

Blind Martha • Velina Showalter; middle. When Martha is two years old, the doctor breaks the news that she will someday become blind. Follow Martha as she goes through school, finds a job, and rides a bike to work. Although Martha eventually becomes completely blind and must use a guide dog, she lives on her own independently and joyfully. A nicely illustrated story. 47 pages; paperback; TGS International. #14419. $7.99

The Bravest Dog Ever: The True Story of Balto • Natalie Standiford; lower. Balto leads the dogsled team that is carrying medicine for very sick children. Will he make it through the blizzard in time? A true story for beginning readers. Full-color illustrations. 48 pages; paperback; Random House. #11230. $3.99

Eight Eggs • Christina Peight; lower. Six-year-old Carlos has found a treasure - eight eggs! His mother sends him to share some of them with their elderly neighbors, and it sets off quite a chain reaction of sharing! Young children will enjoy this book. 26 pages; paperback; Christian Light. #14295. $5.95

Forbidden Path • W.G. Van de Hulst; lower. A wheat field ready to be harvested. Beautiful little poppies growing between the wheat. Two little girls who want to gather flowers for a sick father. But what will happen? They have ignored a “No Trespassing” sign! 48 pages; paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14795. $6.95

The Finest Hours • Michael J. Tougias and Casey Sherman; upper. During one of the worst nor'easters New England has ever seen, two oil tankers are broken in half, stranding the men onboard. Wild waves up to seventy feet high pummel the damaged ships. The coast guard must attempt one of the most daring rescues ever. A gripping story about bravery on the high seas. 160 pages; paperback; Henry Holt and Company. #14288. $7.99

Friend Penn • Rebecca Newswanger; middle. A short book with colorful pictures about the life of William Penn. Against his wealthy father's wishes, he joined the Quakers. After his father's death, Penn used his inheritance to acquire land in the New World where people could live in peace. This book describes his kind dealings with the Indians. 59 pages; paperback; TGS International. #14270. $6.99

Florence Nightingale: Mother of Modern Nursing • Carol Alexander; lower/middle. This is a delightful little biography of Florence Nightingale. With big print and authentic pictures it tells the story of the rich girl who wanted to help the poor by learning to be a nurse. 32 pages; paperback; Scholastic. #14793. $5.95

Helen Keller: Courage in the Dark • Johanna Hurwitz; lower/middle. Children will enjoy reading about the life of Helen Keller in this book. Dedicated teachers made a huge difference in the life of the wild child who couldn't see or hear. 48 pages; paperback; Random House. #13579. $4.99

Flower Mission on Sage Street • Louise Heatwole; middle. Three children are staying with Grandpa and Grandma while their parents are on a mission trip. What will they do all the time? They find out they can bring cheer to the neighbors who live on Grandpa's street. 206 pages; hardcover; Rod and Staff. #14400. $10.25

Home on the Blue Ridge • Pablo Yoder; middle. This book continues the story begun in Home on the Rock Pile. The Yoders begin operating Faith Mission Home for disabled children. Fishing for trout, fussing with siblings, and searching for lost Rosie—all of this and more is packed into this book. 345 pages; paperback; Christian Light Publications. #13848. $10.95

Footprints in the Ash • John Morris and Steven A. Austin; upper. In the early morning of May 18, 1980, the pristine scenery around Washington's Mount St. Helens was shattered by a powerful eruption. In the aftermath, scientists discovered that nature was bringing life out of death. The site became a testament to a creation that is much younger than many scientists believe. 128 pages; hardcover; Master Books. #17877. $16.99

I Survived: The Japanese Tsunami • Lauren Tarshis; lower/middle. Eastern Japan is hit with one of the most powerful earthquakes ever recorded. Then, a terrifying, all-consuming tsunami wave devours everything in its path. In this historical fiction book, read about how Ben and his family are caught in the middle. 83 pages; paperback; Scholastic. #14290. $4.99

Journey Through the Ark Encounter • Tim Chaffey, Mike Belknap, and Stephanie McDorman; lower/middle/upper. An overview of the Ark Encounter exhibit in Williamstown, Kentucky, this well-illustrated book shows how it could have been during the time of Noah, the flood, and the ark as recorded in the book of Genesis. 96 pages; hardcover; Master Books. #14315. $24.99

Logan Pryce Makes a Mess • Grace Gilmore; lower/middle. Tales from Maple Ridge Series, Book 1. One sad day Logan Pryce's dad tells them he must get a job away from their farm to make extra money. Dad finds work at a local store, and Logan can also help for pay! When Logan makes a real mess at work, will his mistake cost his Dad his job? 120 pages; paperback; Simon and Schuster, Inc. #14289. $5.99

The New Ocean Book • Frank Sherwin; middle/upper. This informative book gives a colorful, detailed look at the oceans on planet Earth. Text in differently colored sections throughout is variously aimed at 5th and 6th grade reading level, 7th and 8th grade reading level, and 9th through 11th grade reading level.

96 pages plus foldout; hardcover; Master Books. #14201. $16.99

Paradise Valley • Rebecca Martin; middle/upper. Amish Frontier Series, Book 4. When education laws begin to make life difficult, some Amish fathers take a stand. Facing persecution, a decision is made to move to Mexico. Pioneering is not easy, and difficulties with the new government and some rebel soldiers are unexpected challenges.

187 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #13584. $9.99

The Pig Under the Pew • W.G. Van de Hulst; lower. Three mischievous boys, a mischievous little pig, and a little girl wandering where she shouldn't all combine to give a grumpy church caretaker a lot of trouble! 48 pages; paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14589. $6.95

The Secret Hiding Place • W.G. Van de Hulst; lower. Davy and Tom find a secret hiding place in Farmer Cooper's woods. They have great adventures there, but they know they shouldn't be trespassing, and they took some things that weren't theirs. They were even late for school! Will the policeman find them? 48 pages;

paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14464. $6.95

Sissy Kid Brother • Amelia Mueller; middle/upper. Thirteen-year-old Ken hires on as cook for his father's custom harvesting crew. You will enjoy reading about his awkward cooking disasters, a race with a tornado, and a night ride with two robbers. 236 pages, paperback, ages 9-15, A-Lot-A-Books. #14448. $12.99

Steamboat Rock • Rebecca Martin; middle/upper. Amish Frontier Series, Book 6. The Yoders move to Michigan's Upper Peninsula in the shadow of World War II. Will the boys be drafted? In all of the uncertainty, they take an inspiration from the Psalms: "The Lord is my rock." 181 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #14107. $9.99

Survival: Avalanche! • Frieda Wishinsky; middle/upper. "Avalanche!" shouted Alex. "Run!" But Alex and his friends couldn't run. The swift and powerful flood of snow knocked them off their feet and covered them up. A perfect day to build an amazing snow fort turns into a nightmare. Will they survive? 107 pages; paperback; Scholastic. #14625. $6.99

Switherby Pilgrims • Eleanor Spence; middle/upper. In 1825, concerned for the future of her ten orphan charges in the grim factory towns of their native England, Miss Arabella Braithewaite, known to the children as Missabella, decides to take a land grant in Australia and makes the long, daunting journey with her wards to the austere bush country of New South Wales. 195 pages; paperback; Bethlehem Books. #11077. $13.95

The Three Little Hunters • W.G. Van de Hulst. Roger, Danny, and Willy are out on a hunt. Very quietly they tiptoe through the woods! At once a little kitten in need of compassion is spotted. How will the brave hunters deal with sickness and sadness? 48 pages; paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14789. $6.95

Traveling to Alaska • Leroy Stoll; upper. Leroy and Esther Stoll wanted to see the remote bush country, wild mountains, and colorful fishing villages of Alaska. They put together a route using public transportation all of the way. The writing is sprinkled with historical notes and comments. 221 pages; paperback; Leroy Stoll. #14264.

$14.99

Wonsit: Ute Girl Crossing Wild Wyoming • Kenneth Thomasma; middle/upper. See the colorful history of the White River Ute people through the eyes of a child. Ten-year-old Wonsit and her people travel away from land-hungry settlers to a far-away place where they hope for a better life. 191 pages; paperback; Grandview Publishing. #14792. $7.99 Proofreader's Note: A statement on p. 156 portrays a resistant attitude.

The Work of His Hands • Pablo Yoder; middle/upper. This beautiful book is packed with clear, close-up pictures of plant and animal life in Central and South America. This interesting book describes how the Creator made each living thing with what it needs to survive in its environment. 270 pages; hardcover; Christian Light Publications. #14305. $27.95

Order from
Gospel Publishers
P.O. Box 230, Moundridge, Kansas 67107
Telephone 620-345-2532. Fax 620-345-2582
www.gospelpublishers.com/usa
Email orders@gospelpublishers.com

2020 Library Newsletter

from Gospel Publishers
November 2020

Following is a list of books suitable for school libraries. These titles have been added in the last year.

Adopted Jane • Helen F. Daringer; middle/upper. For as long as she can remember, Jane has lived at the James Ballard Memorial Home. She sees other children come and go, but never has a family wanted to adopt her. Finally, she receives invitations to spend time in two different homes. She will live in real houses with real families. And once back at the orphanage, she is given a wonderful and momentous choice. 223 pages; paperback; A-Lot-a-Books. #14447. $12.99

Tales From Maple Ridge: The Big City • Grace Gilmore; lower/middle. Book 3 in the Maple Ridge series. Logan Pryce cannot wait to leave boring Maple Ridge and go to the exciting city. While Pa is in a job interview, Logan explores Sherman with his cousin Freddy. After spending a day among the hustle and bustle of urban life, will Logan still find the city alluring? 119 pages; paperback. Little Simon. #14777. $5.99

Blaze and the Gray Spotted Pony • C.W. Anderson; lower. Tommy is a young boy who lives near Billy. He likes to ride Billy's pony, Blaze. He enjoys the toy horses he gets as birthday gifts. But what he really wants is his own real, live pony. Will he ever get one? Illustrated. 48 pages; paperback; Aladdin. #14429. $7.99

Bop-It and No More COVID • Jessica Wohl-gemuth; lower. A little children's book about a fuzzy little grey bunny named Bop-It. Read about how Bop-It and his friends learn to cope through the Covid-19 pandemic, finding fun in the new normal. 30 pages; paperback. Wohl-gemuth. #14968. $15.50

Censored Science: The Suppressed Evidence • Bruce A. Malone; upper. A stunning, full-color book showcasing the fifty best pieces of evidence for a biblical creation worldview. Each two-page spread lays out the evidence for creation and then provides a rebuttal to the most common evolutionist objections to the evidence. Divided into three major sections: "Censored

Biological Evidence," "Censored Geological Evidence," and "Censored Cosmological Evidence." 127 pages; hardcover; Search for the Truth. #14786. $16.95

Chuma and Chuma Finds a Baby • Charles Ludwig; upper. This book includes two stories. Chuma wants to learn about Jesus, but her father, the witch doctor, does not let her go to Sunday school. Read how her hate for her sister turns to love. One day she finds a twin baby left to die according to the customs of the tribe. Will she dare to save the baby's life? How will she keep it hidden? 152 pages; paperback; King's Bookshelf. #14964. $7.95

Destination Africa: Into the Vast Savanna

• Marcellus Beachy; lower/middle/upper. Join Marcellus on an African safari to see many animals up close. Also learn facts about each animal and marvel at the variety of God's creation. 92

pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14613. $19.99

A Drop of Mercy • Becky McGurrin; upper. Historical fiction about a young Mennonite man and his family and friends during the Revolutionary War. Twice he is put to a tremendous test. The first time he failed it. But after he has given his heart to God he has another chance to show mercy. Will he? This book will help you examine the nonresistant doctrine against the backdrop of extremely challenging times. What would you have done? 134 pages; paperback; Christian Light Publications. #14680. $7.95 An instance of graphic violence is noted on page 45.

Egermeier's ABC Bible Storybook • Elsie

Egermeier, Arlene Hall; lower. A delightful book using each letter of the alphabet to highlight some of the best-loved stories in the Bible. Each story includes a full-page color illustration. Suitable for reading aloud to preschoolers. 52 pages; hardcover; Warner Press. #14761. $12.99

Esther Starts from Home • Romaine Stauffer; lower/middle. Short stories for children. Chapter titles include Tattletale Beans, Bears under the Bed, Cheese Sandwich Tales, and many more. Suitable for reading aloud. 184 pages; paperback; Christian Light Publications. #14227. $8.95

Follow Me • Rebecca Martin; middle/upper. A sequel to A Captain for Hans and The Brickmakers. The difficulties for the Schweitzers of the Palatinate continue as they try to live their faith despite the pressures from the rulers. The next generation is faced with making their own decisions about what they believe. There must also be a decision made about traveling to the New World: a land where people can worship God as they choose. 178 pages; paperback; Carlisle Press. #13582. $10.99

Four Angels • Velina Showalter; lower. Grandma Fannie and Grandpa Henry are startled when they wake up and see robbers in their bedroom. But as they lay still, Grandma Fannie begins to recite a rhyme that she learned as a little girl. What will the robbers do? This full-color book for young children will teach them about God's protection. 38 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14405. $8.99

Go West with Settlers and Farmers • Rachel Stucky; middle. This book tells the exciting story of how the American and Canadian West was settled. First came explorers, followed by people seeking opportunity and land to farm. Read about how the land settlement came at great cost to Native peoples, and learn about the wars and other major events that shaped the West. 32 pages; paperback; Crabtree Publishing. #14453. $8.95

Grandma's Goose • Mary Martin; lower/middle. This is a true story about a baby goose that was rescued by an older lady. As she and her family cared for Sophie (the goose) they learned a lot about geese. Sophie liked to tease the cats. She liked to fly alongside the van when they drove down the road. Read this book to learn more about geese and about God's creation. 188 pages, hardcover, Rod and Staff Publishers. #13478. $9.95

The Gray Eyes Family • Edith J. Agnew; lower/middle. Written in the 1950s, this story for children tells about a Navajo family who has grown up in the traditional way of their people, but they are starting to become acquainted with the missionary, the government, and the world beyond their immediate surroundings. The oldest son wants to go to school. And the missionary and the Trading Post man say the baby needs a name paper. What shall they do? Whom shall they trust? 127 pages; paperback; AB Publishing. #13834. $6.95

Inferno in the Lost Pines • Katrina Hoover; upper. A few sparks on a windy day in Bastrop, Texas, started a major fire. In its path were many homes nestled among the loblolly pines. Despite firefighters' best efforts, the fire couldn't be stopped. People left their homes and returned a few days later to smoking ash heaps. This book gives their personal stories and tells how to fight a forest fire and how to plan a yard with fire prevention in mind. 228 pages; paperback; TGS International. #11777. $12.99

Jerome's Adventures • Rilla Miller; lower/middle. Jerome is a spider, and we are invited to join him in this imaginary tale as he explores from his home in the human house. A fascinating children's story. 45 pages; paperback; Miller. #14909. $7.95

Kalak of the Ice • Jim Kjelgaard; middle/upper. This is the story of Kalak, the great polar bear whose domain lay north of the Arctic Circle. Through the dramatic saga of a polar bear's life, the author presents an unforgettable picture of the land of bear and seal, whale and walrus, and the men who live among them. 201 pages; paperback; AB Publishing. #14783. $8.95

Kittens, Kittens Everywhere • V.G. Van de Hulst; lower. Peggy and Penny were heartbroken. Their kittens, Heather and Feather, were lost! Then suddenly Dr. Hart, their stern neighbor, was accusing the girls of making all sorts of mischief. And what about those noises behind the tall fence dividing Dr. Hart's yard from theirs? What was happening behind the doctor's fence? 48 pages; paperback; Inheritance Publications. #14787. $6.95

Knight's Journey • Anthony Eicher; lower/middle. The knight had the greatest horse, the finest castle, and plenty of gold. But he was not happy. "Maybe," he thought, "the old man in the forest can tell me how to find happiness." The wise man told the young knight that a drink of the legendary waters of St. Metz would bring happiness. 58 pages; hardcover; Eicher. #14711. $19.95

The Last River • Stuart Waldman; lower/middle. No European had ever taken boats down the Colorado river and come out alive. In May 1869, ten men boarded four rowboats in Green River City, Wyoming. Three months and 1,000 miles later, two battered boats carrying six exhausted and starving men emerged from the depths of the Grand Canyon. The Last River tells their remarkable story. Color illustrations. 47 pages; paperback; Mikaya Press. #14760. $12.95. Proofreader's note: Pages 12, 35, and 43 refer to some violence or evolution.

Tales From Maple Ridge: The Lucky Wheel • Grace Gilmore; lower/middle. Book 2 in the Tales From Maple Ridge series. The schoolchildren of Maple Ridge are trying to raise money to repair the schoolhouse. Logan doesn't have the money, but he has a broken wheel and a Fix-It shop. He can fix the wheel, but can he sell it? Read this book to see how Logan's story resulted in a lot of people showing up to fix the school. 121 pages; paperback; Little Simon. #14621. $5.99. Proofreader's note: There are two instances of inappropriate language — see pp. 59 and 120.

Nelly's Dark Days • Sarah Smith; middle/upper. This old classic was originally printed in 1870. It gives a picture of how many people in Liverpool and other cities were caught in the grip of drunkenness and poverty. Nelly's father is a hopeless drunkard, whose negligence cost the life of his wife, and Nelly almost died as well. Through God's grace the father experienced forgiveness and a change of heart, and the book ends happily. 99 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14615. $11.99

Old Nick and Bob • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. This book is about two dogs wandering through the American Old West. Old Nick, raised and loved by a boy until tragedy struck, is a gentle but wary giant of a dog. He finds and befriends Bob, a three month old puppy separated from his mother. Old Nick protects his new friend, trying to keep him safe from the dangers of the wilderness, but especially from man. 239 pages; paperback; Lone Oak Books. #14758. $7.95. Proofreaders' note: An instance of inappropriate language is found on p. 100.

Orville Wright • Janet & Geoff Benge; middle/upper. This is the story of Orville Wright, who, together with his brother Wilbur, pursued the idea of powered flight. They operated with careful observation, perseverance, and ingenuity. By trial and error they worked through problems one by one until that exciting day in 1903 when they took to the air! 203 pages; paperback; Emerald Books. #14133. $9.99

A Song for the King • Rebecca Martin; middle/upper. Amish Frontier Series book 3. Thirteen-year-old Lydia Yoder feels homeless. Poor farming conditions mean yet another change! The Yoder family spends a summer working for produce farmers at Ordway, Colorado. Then they move on to Montana to a recently established

Amish community where they learn some colorful and important life lessons. 196 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #13539. $9.99

A Storm Too Soon • Michael J. Tougias; upper. In May of 2007, three veteran sailors set out on an voyage from Florida to France. But the trip soon turns into a nightmare when their sailboat is caught in the throes of a mighty storm. This is the story of their desperate struggle to survive in a small life raft battered by eighty-foot waves, and the story of the brave coast guardsmen who risked their own lives to save the stranded sailors. 220 pages; paperback; Henry Holt and Company. #14285. $7.99

Traveling to Europe • Leroy Stoll; upper. In 2018, Leroy and Esther Stoll embarked on a European trip to explore the history of their faith aboard the Queen Mary 2, the world's only remaining ocean liner. Included are accounts of Amish and Anabaptist history and a section of photographs in the center of the book. Similar to the book Traveling to Alaska. 244 pages; paperback; Stoll. #14765. $14.99

Ulysses and His Woodland Zoo • Jim Kjelgaard; middle/upper. Ulysses considers himself a “bumbler”—often with good reason. In the world of men he blunders constantly. But when he is hired as the winter caretaker of a remote hunters' lodge, he finds a talent as a nurturer of many hurt and needy animals. In the woodland world he attains dignity and assurance. 185 pages; paperback; AB Publishing. #14557. $8.95

What Is a Blizzard? • Robin Johnson; middle. This well-illustrated book for children teaches about snowstorms, blizzards, and whiteouts. It tells how animals prepare for winter ahead of time, and shows how people can prepare a blizzard kit as well. 24 pages; paperback; Crabtree Publishing. #14068. $7.95

What Money Can't Buy • Emily Steiner; upper. Caught in the Great Depression, the Hess family needs to work and pray for every mortgage payment on their Ohio farm. Their savings disappear when the bank fails, but fourteen-year-old Annie finds that God is still the unchanging source of true riches. 368 pages; paperback; Rod and Staff Publishers. #14696. $13.95

Order from
Gospel Publishers
P.O. Box 230, Moundridge, Kansas 67107
Telephone 620-345-2532. Fax 620-345-2582
www.gospelpublishers.com/usa
Email orders@gospelpublishers.com

2022 Library Newsletter

from Gospel Publishers
February 2022

Following is a list of books suitable for school libraries. These titles have been added in the last year.

A Song for Wooster • Lana Kuhns; lower. Wooster is a little Silkie rooster, just hatched last spring. There are so many things to learn. But the hardest thing is to learn to sing the right thing! Read this book to see how Wooster learned! 18 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #15053. $7.99

Arrow in the Sky • Rebecca Martin; middle/upper. Amish Frontier Series Book 5. Living on a rice farm in Arkansas in the 1930s, the Yoder family had plenty of food, but money was scarce. Migrant workers came through in search of work, presenting a chance to share their food and show their care. 165 pages; paperback; Ridgeway Publishing. #13711. $9.99

Bart the Bully Goat • Lana Kuhns; lower. That goat is such a bully! He stomps on the kittens' tails and takes the best berries from the other goats. He knocks the people over if they turn their back to him. Something must be done about that goat! Read this book to see how Bart learned a lesson. 22 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #15052. $7.99

Distant Shores • Ivan Weaver; upper. As a young Amish man in 1969, Ivan Weaver left for Alaska to become a hunting guide. For 2½ years he lived in the wilderness, guiding men as they hunted huge Kodiak bears. But Ivan was troubled. "What is the meaning of life?" He finally decided he must return to his roots and his church. 243 pages; paper; Weaver. #14927. $14.99

Dolly the Milk Cow • Helga Moser; lower. Part of the Pleasant Valley Farm Series, telling the story of a special barnyard animal. Dolly was a patient, faithful milk cow that always led the other cows to the barn at milking time, even when it was dark or icy. Fully illustrated; 48 pages; hardcover; Christian Light Publications. #15045. $16.95

Forest Friends Series • Harry Baerg; lower/middle. Originally printed in the 1950's. Learn about these animals, their habitat, predators and how they survive in the forest. Full-color illustrations. Hardcover. Published by Northstar books. $15.95 each.

Book 1 - Humpty the Moose, 60 pages, #10033

Book 2 - Benny the Beaver, 60 pages, #10032

Book 3 - Chipmunk Willie, 56 pages, #10031

Go West with Miners, Prospectors and Loggers • Cynthia O'Brien; middle. When gold was discovered at Sutter's Mill in California, word spread quickly. Soon three-quarters of the male population of San Francisco headed out to "the diggings." Many thousands from far and near joined them in the next few years. Life in the area was forever changed! This book tells this thrilling story with concise text snippets and colorful pictures. 32 pages; paperback; Crabtree Publishing. #14454. $8.95

God in the Caribou Fire • Sheila Bontrager; upper. Pushed by high winds, the wall of fire swept down Mount Marius. The fire jumped ahead of itself, shooting flames high into the sky. Time was running out! Read these first-person accounts of people who fled from the Caribou Fire. 251 pages; paper; Ridgeway Publishing. #14926. $11.99

Horse Stories from the Man Who Played with Sticks • Johnny Ruhl; middle/upper. Written by an experienced horse trainer, this book illustrates parallels between training horses and teaching important life lessons to people. As children read or listen to the stories, they will catch something they can understand. Adults will see additional truths at a deeper level. Paperback, 120 pages Christian Light Publications. #14298. $7.95

I Survived: The Great Molasses Flood • Lauren Tarshis; middle. It sounds rather funny—a “flood” of molasses, but it was not funny for the people caught in it. In the year 1919 a massive tank holding molasses exploded in the city of Boston. Read this historical fiction story to understand what it was like to live through this awful disaster. 94 pages; paper; Scholastic. #14997. $5.99

In My Father's House • Corrie Ten Boom; upper. This is the life story of the young Corrie Ten Boom. As she matures, she reaches out to others, helping form girls' camps for activities and learning about the Lord. Later still, her family takes in children who need a home. Fast paced and alternately humorous and sobering, it makes for interesting reading. 197 pages; paperback; Lighthouse Trails Publishing. #14317. $13.95

Jasper's Secret • Eva Zimmerman; lower. This is a true story about a lively growing pup and a baby Miniature Mediterranean donkey. They were each lonely with no one to play with, until they found each other! 31 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #15051. $7.99

Leaving Russia • Rosabel Fast; middle/upper. This book is about the Mennonites that moved to the prairies of Manitoba. In the 1870s, the group arrived after a long journey. They sailed over the Atlantic Ocean, and then travelled across land by wagon train. The Mennonites were welcomed by the Canadian government to farm in this new land. 80 pages; paperback; Plett Foundation. #14948. $10.95

Lena of Terre Hill • Sharon Schnupp Kueper; middle. Pennsylvania Girl Series #1. In 1926, Lena is an eleven-year-old girl growing up on her family's farm in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Do people like her? Will they make ends meet? See how Pop handled the squatters on the “back forty.” 126 pages; paperback; Mastof Press. #14998. $9.95

Life in the Woods • Mike Atnip; lower. This is a picture book for young children. What do we find in the woods? Look closely and you will see many creatures - great and small. It is a book of photos of wild animals and plants with commentary, as if taking a walk through the woods together. This book is part of the “Nature Discoveries with Uncle Mike” series. 45 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14387. $8.99

Little Pony • Eva Zimmerman; lower. This is a true story about a little pony who rode in a trailer for a long time to a new place. Everything was new and scary. But he soon made friends with the new people and animals, and he had many good times. 40 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #15050. $7.99

Names for All the Animals • Martha Rohrer; lower/middle. This book illustrates various habitats, such as rainforest in South America and mountains in Asia and North America, and tells about the animals that live in them. There is a little description and a picture of each featured animal. Interesting and informative! 64 pages; paperback; Rod and Staff Publishers. #15069. $4.25

Sarah in the Village • Sharon Schnupp Keupfer; middle. Sarah is the oldest child in a Mennonite family in a village in Russia. They have many uncles, aunts, and cousins, and village life is lively and fun. But Sarah worries a lot, too. Learn about how young folks grew up long ago in our ancestors' villages in Russia. 121 pages; paper; Mastof Press. #14978. $8.95

Shep: A Collie of the Old West • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. Shep was the kind of collie that ranchers are proud to own: powerful, big-hearted, and intelligent. A few men had been clever enough to catch him, but Shep always got away. One day, Shep was trapped in a deep pit and rescued by a little boy. 224 pages; paperback; Lone Oak Books. #14756. $7.95

Silver • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. The pure white colt with long, silver mane and tail streaming in the wind was beautiful. He could run faster than all the other colts in the wild herd. Charlie Barr was determined to have the wild colt for his own. "I must hurry and get my brand on him before some other feller does!" Charlie said. That would not be so easy, and after being captured once, Silver got his freedom again. 245 pages; paperback; Lone Oak Books. #14755. $7.95
Proofreaders' note: There are some instances of inappropriate language on pp. 109, 181, 188, and 191.

The Great Pyramid • Elizabeth Mann; middle/upper. This colorful book tells about life in ancient Egypt and the Great Pyramid. It touches on the beliefs of the ancient Egyptians, explains how the Pharaoh had so much power, and tells why the Great Pyramid was built. 48 pages; paperback; Mikaya Press. #14768. $14.95

The Red Roan Pony • Joseph Wharton Lippincott; middle/upper. The red roan pony had a circus pony for a mother and a wild roan mustang for a father. He was full of speed and grace and had a real love for the young people who loved him so much! Read about races on the prairie and a thrilling fox hunt. 320 pages; paperback; AB Publishing. #14821. $12.95

The Seagoing Cowboy • Peggy Reiff Miller; lower/middle. An illustrated children's book depicting the real-life story of seagoing cowboys. These men sailed ships taking livestock from America to people suffering the effects of World War II. Thousands of men signed up to serve and returned home with a wider view of the world around them. This book tells history we haven't heard so much about! Hardcover, 39 pages; Brethren Press. #14734. $18.99

Vic, A Dog of the Prairies • Thomas C. Hinkle; middle/upper. He was a big dog - young, black, and powerful. By chance he ended up on the ranch land of Jim Williams. This big dog longed for human companionship, but he distrusted grown men. One day Jim's eleven-year-old brother Gene met up with Vic. It was the start of a great friendship and many adventures. 192 pages; paper; Lone Oak Books. #14924. $8.95

Wahoo Bobcat • Joseph Wharton Lippincott; middle/upper. The great bobcat reigned supreme deep in the Florida wilderness. Farmers and hunters feared and hated him. But strange circumstances propelled the boy Sammy and the fierce Wahoo bobcat into an unusual compact of friendship and understanding. Will Sammy be able to help when his animal friend is threatened by dogs and hunters? 207 pages; paper; JB Lippincott. #14946. $12.99

White Horse to Bucharest • Vila Gingerich; upper. When Christian Service International sent Lee and Vila Gingerich to Romania as humanitarian workers, they expected a positive experience, but they never guessed how much the country would teach them. A collection of over seventy short stories about their time in Romania. 263 pages; paperback; Gingerich. #14954. $13.99

The Wolf King • Joseph Wharton Lippincott; middle/upper. High in the Rocky Mountains of Alberta, a lively black wolf-pup was born. Early in life he had scary close encounters with man, but miraculously escaped. He grew into a mighty 200 pound leader of a pack, and he came to be called the King. His cunning and power seemed almost limitless!

Young people will enjoy this thrilling tale of the wilderness and the wild animals and hardy men that inhabit it. 246 pages; paperback; AB Publishing. #14823. $12.99

Order from
Gospel Publishers
P.O. Box 230, Moundridge, Kansas 67107
Telephone 620-345-2532. Fax 620-345-2582
www.gospelpublishers.com/usa
Email orders@gospelpublishers.com

Wonders in the Sea • Mike Atnip; lower. Part of the “Nature Discoveries with Uncle Mike” series, this book of colorful photos and clear text will introduce children to some amazing creatures of the sea. How strange some look! How do they get their food? 44 pages; hardcover; TGS International. #14733. $8.99